Reference Name Eagle Scout Candidate Troop #

The above named young man is in the process of applying for the highest award the Boy Scouts of America can bestow upon a youth member. He has worked for several years, and if he is successful in his quest, he will have earned a nationally recognized achievement that he will be proud of for the rest of his life. In addition the Eagle Scout Rank will open many doors for him, while at the same time placing upon him the expectation to set an example of high values and ethics.

Soon he will be called before the Eagle Scout Board of Review, a group of citizens who represent the Chief Seattle Council, BSA. We are hoping you will be able to help the board get to know him as they make their decision whether or not to recognize him with the Award.

The Eagle Scout candidate has submitted your name as a reference. Would you please take a moment and complete this confidential form? The candidate was to have supplied you with a stamped envelope already addressed, so you can send the completed form to his BSA district advancement chairman. If he did not please give him a call for the proper name and address. Please do not return the form to the candidate.

Eagle Scout requirement #2 states, "Demonstrate that you live by the principles of the Scout Oath and Law in your daily life." Give us your opinion. Does this young man live by the principles shown below? How? Look at each point. Can you give us some examples?

Scout Oath

On my honor I will do my best To do my duty to God and my country and to obey the Scout Law; To help other people at all times; To keep myself physically strong mentally awake, and morally straight.
